CLEVELAND J. LINDER

Cleveland J. Linder, a man with the mind of an Engineer, the heart of a Chaplain, and the expertise of a Master's level Social Worker, has spent over 8 years bringing comfort and guidance to those facing terminal illnesses. Ordained since 2012 and a Licensed Minister since 2010, his journey began as a dedicated minister in an urban setting. Cleveland's path led him to become a Licensed Master Social Worker in 2020, where he continued to provide emotional and spiritual support to hospice patients and their families. As a devoted husband and father of two, he embodies compassion not only professionally but also in his personal life. Founder of I Am Powered LLC and soon to be the Spiritual Leader of the Kendall Wyche Foundation, Cleveland is a beacon of hope, bringing his unique blend of skills and unwavering commitment to make a difference in the lives of many.

In the tapestry of his life, Cleveland's roles as a Bereavement Coordinator, Social Work Intern, and Chaplain shine brightly, reflecting his dedication to supporting those facing the end of life's journey. Beyond his impressive credentials, he is a father who understands the importance of love, empathy, and guidance. As the founder of I Am Powered LLC, he empowers individuals to tap into their inner strength. Now, as the incoming Spiritual Leader of the Kendall Wyche Foundation, his journey comes full circle, as he continues to offer solace, wisdom, and spiritual guidance to those in need, leaving an indelible mark on the hearts of all he touches.
